

BIOGRAPHY: DR. ANDRA HOMER, PASTOR

Dr. Andra Homer is a humble servant and teacher dedicated to sharing the compelling gospel of Jesus Christ. She is a native of Los Angeles, CA. She joined the United States Navy in 1998 and served faithfully deploying to foreign countries as an ambassador of the Lord. She surrendered her life to Jesus Christ in Yokosuka, Japan and accepted her calling to the ministry.

God increased her ministry through faith and commitment while serving the Lord in several capacities over the past 20 years. She serves her community through compassion in hosting Women's Conferences, outreach events, and support groups to reach the needs of God's people. She completed theological studies and ordination prerequisites at the C.H. Mason Bible College in Oakland, CA. under the leadership of Dean Eastman.

Dr. Homer unapologetically proclaims the gospel to build the Kingdom of God and reach the nations with the message of restoration. She is the helpmeet to her husband Sr. Pastor Dr. A. B. Homer and is a mother of 2 daughters. Dr. Andra Homer also faithfully serves as Pastor under the leadership of Sr. Pastor, Dr. A. B. Homer at Christian Ministries Tabernacle of Faith, Inc. She is a living testimony with unshakeable faith, bold vision and transparent life experiences as evidence of God's transformation power!

God turned around every area of her life as she was blessed to complete her Bachelors' Degree in Accounting in 2008, Master's Degree in Christian Counseling in 2014, Master's Degree in Business Administration in 2015, and Doctorate Degree of Theology in 2015. God continues to use her as an anointed prayer warrior, prophetess and servant in her faithful commitment unto Christ. Dr. Homer also serves as a public civil servant. She strives to teach the unadulterated word of life through the compelling love of Jesus Christ!
